GOVERNMENT OF INDIA
LABOUR
LOK SABHA

STARRED QUESTION NO:284
ANSWERED ON:10.12.2001
SOCIAL SECURITY SYSTEM
KINJARAPU YERRANNAIDU;NARESH KUMAR PUGLIA

Will the Minister of LABOUR be pleased to state:

(a) whether the Government propose to launch a social security system in a bid to widen pension cover mainly to include therein the workers of the unorganised sector such as contract labour, self-employed and private servicemen;

(b) if so, whether the blue print of the system has since been prepared;

(c) if so, the details thereof; and

(d) the extent to which the workers in the country are likely to be benefited by this system?

Answer

MINISTER OF LABOUR (SHRI SHARAD YADAV)

(a) to (d): A statement is laid on the Table of the House.